STAFF

Julie Ward is WPC's Early Childhood Director, and has served as the Preschool Director for the last seven years. She has a Master's in Marriage, Family and Child Counseling, and has been working in educational settings for 24 years.

Hannah Hogan grew up in the WPC family and began teaching in the preschool in 2021. She has professional training as a Doula and extensive experience in early childhood education.

Sarah Knox joined the preschool teaching staff in 2021 after serving as a parent helper in the cooperative for six years. Sarah is the mom of three boys, volunteers in the children's ministry at her church, and is completing a degree in early childhood education.

Natasha Larreau joins the preschool teaching staff after two years as a parent volunteer and a year as a long-term substitute within our program. She has a background in early childhood education and has spent the last decade teaching in our school district and at her home church.

HISTORY & GOALS

Westminster Cooperative Preschool is a community outreach program of Westminster Presbyterian Church. It was established in 1972 to serve families in the Rogue Valley. The preschool welcomes children from all cultures and religious backgrounds.

Westminster Preschool strives to maintain a learning environment that reflects Christian values of love, acceptance, empathy and compassion for others. Weekly Chapel Chats are offered to all our preschool classes.

Westminster Preschool incorporates a curriculum that is based on developmentally appropriate practices. Its goals are to provide recreation and education for preschool children through a cooperative effort between teachers and parents.

Our Program

The teachers create an environment and learning opportunities that are developmentally appropriate, centering around the children's social, spiritual, emotional, physical, and cognitive needs.

- Chapel Chats to hear stories communicating that God loves us and that Jesus wants to be our friend forever
- Dramatic, sensory, and exploratory play for fine motor development, pre-reading and pre-math skill building, and enhancement of social emotional skills
- Calendar time, story time, sharing, music and movement
- Art experiences with emphasis on process, not product
- Snack time for enjoying food and conversation together
- Active play outside on our playground to exercise and develop large motor skills

GUIDELINES

- Westminster Preschool is a parent cooperative. An adult family member should be available to help in the classroom approximately once every three weeks.
- All classroom volunteers must pass a criminal background check.
- All preschoolers are expected to be fully toilet trained and up to date on their immunizations.
